

THANK YOU

For trying to understand.

For asking me how I am.

For knowing me well enough to know when I'm not ok.

For being understanding when I have to cancel our plans.

For reminding me what I'm fighting for, and reminding me who I am.

For trying not to fix it, when I just need a hug.

Thank you for always being there, and for being a good friend.